Dan Garvin has been involved in international folk dancing for over 30 years. He has attended dance camps and workshops around the United States, learning from Yves Moreau, Theodor Vasilescu, Steve Kotansky and others. He has taught at many venues around the Midwest, including Door County Folk Festival, Chicago land Spring Fling and workshops in Omaha (NE), Fairwater (WI) and Winnipeg (Canada). He is one of the leaders at Tapestry Folkdance Center in Minneapolis and one of the organizers of SNOPA!, an annual dance retreat in the Twin Cities area. For the last 10 years, Dan has also been a member of Tri Bratovchedki -- a singing trio based in Madison, WI that both performs and teaches folk songs from Central and Eastern Europe.

Debbie Kmetz grew up in a family and culture that valued singing and storytelling. As an adult, she has sung Appalachian and country songs in performing duets, trios and bands and has sung Eastern European songs with the Narodno Singers and Tri Bratovchedki. Debbie and Dan have sung together in Tri Bratovchedki for 10 years. Debbie has also danced with the Zaibas Lithuanian Dancers since 1991, performing in places including Chicago, Toronto, Madison and Japan.
